22. The Black Sabbath MC Nation is a law-abiding motorcycle club. We do not condone criminal activities of any kind, nor violence, illegal behavior, or anti-social behavior. All prospective members will understand that no full patch members, officers, associates, or supporters are allowed, per our bylaws, to EVER ask you to commit ANY kind of crime for ANY reason. There can be no promises made to you, threats levied against you, or intimidation designed to coerce you to commit any act of violence or to commit any crime against the laws of your state or the United States of America for benefit of the Black Sabbath MC Nation or any organization associated with this MC Nation. If you are asked to commit a crime it is your duty and obligation to inform the chain of command and to demand a formal board to address this situation, immediately. You are required to escalate your concerns up the chain of command until your situation is formally adjudicated, accepting no attempts to sweep it under the rug or cover it up from any person. For this there will be no reprisals of any kind against you.

Can you carry out your duties where statement number 22 is concerned? (yes) _____ (no) _____
